The Supreme Court rejected the appeal against his placement in the 41-bis system in March 2023, then the following month the Constitutional Court ruled in favour of allowing the reduction of Cospito's sentence from life imprisonment to 23 years. In response to the latter, he stopped his hunger strike after 180 days on 19 April 2023; he had lost 50 kg. Cospito commented in court "There is no evidence that we placed the bombs in Fossano [...] Anarchists do not make indiscriminate massacres, because anarchists are not the state".

Andreas Krebs

Andreas is a former rebel long-term prisoner, who was 16 years behind bars until October 2014. He helped build the prisoners' union (GG/BO) behind bars, led various hunger strikes against the lousy conditions in prison and took part in a solidarity hunger strike for prisoners in Greece. In autumn 2014, after his release, he met his current wife Jutta. Both decided to spend a quiet retirement in the south of Italy. At the end of December 2016 there was a dispute with his former employer, who attacked Andreas and strangled him. Andreas stabbed him in self-defence with a penknife. The employer died in the hospital three days later under mysterious circumstances, although it was said shortly after the act that he would survive. In April 2019 he was sentenced in Italy to 24 years for intended murder. Andreas was diagnosed with kidney cancer. Despite this, he did not receive any treatment in prison. After a long struggle, he has finally been transferred to a German prison to be closer to friends and family. This year, he probably suffered a second stroke. He can barely move his left arm and can no longer hear anything in his left ear. Despite these serious health limitations, he continues to be left alone in his cell at night.

Jessica Reznicek

Jessica Reznicek is a 40 year old land and water defender who has worked with and lived in the Des Moines Catholic Worker Community for the last 10 years. In 2016, Jessica took a stand against the construction of the Dakota Access Pipeline in Iowa. Jessica attended public comment hearings, gathered signatures for valid requests for Environmental Impact Statements, and participated in civil disobedience, hunger strikes, marches and rallies, boycotts and encampments. When the process failed, she concluded the system was broken, and it was up to individuals to take action and protect the water. She and a fellow Catholic Worker then spent the next couple months disabling construction machinery along the pipeline route. No one was injured by their actions, and the land was protected from the flow of oil for an additional six months. On February 6, 2021, Jessica pleaded guilty to one count of Conspiracy to Damage an Energy Facility and on June 30, 2021 was designated a domestic terrorist by the court and sentenced to 8 years in prison, followed by 3 years supervised probation, and a restitution of $3,198,512.70 paid to Energy Transfer LLC.

Juan Flores Riquelme

Juan Flores is serving a sentence of 23 years, having been convicted by the Chilean state for incendiary attacks in 2014 claimed by the Conspiracy Cells of Fire & International Conspiracy of Revenge. On July 23, 2014 a CCF cell bombed "The Dominicans" station of the Santiago Metro, and on September 8, 2014 a shopping mall in Las Condes. In both instances, measures were taken to ensure the bombs would not hurt anyone, but in the former a bag containing the bomb was moved by a Metro employee, and in the latter the police ignored a warning call the CCF cell made 10 minutes before the bomb was set to go off. As a result, the attacks ended up injuring people, so the Chilean state was able to claim they were meant to terrorize the population, and used an anti-terrorism law to obtain maximum sentencing on March 15, 2018 after proclaiming Juan guilty of both attacks. Two other comrades, Nataly Casanova and Enrique Guzman, were initially charged alongside Juan, but after over three years of imprisonment and criminal proceedings were found not guilty on all counts. For the attack on the 'Llega Nord' in Treviso, he was sentenced to a final prison term of 14 years and 10 months (the original sentence was 28 years, but it was not final). In addition, there are a number of penalties for resisting state authority, public disorder, etc., which increased the sentence by 11 years. In October 2024, the trial began in connection with the 2015 bombing of the police academy in Brescia (he faces up to 30 years in prison).

Marco Marino "Zac"

Anarchist Comrade Marco Marino, also known as Zac got arrested and accused of incendiary Attack against Greek Consulate in Italy.

On March 28, two houses, one in Napoli and one in Pozzuoli, were raided and four comrades were taken to the police station, in connection with a 270 bis investigation (anti-terrorist association), which was officialized in May 2022 following several house-searches.

Although the investigation is still ongoing, one comrade was placed under preventive arrest, accused of an arson attack against the Greek consulate in 2021. The prosecution contextualizes this attack within the campaign in solidarity with revolutionary Greek prisoner Dimitris Koufontinas, who at the time was on hunger strike.

The comrade has now been taken to the Secondigliano prison and is placed in the AS2 section (high security unit), while the three other comrades were released. According to the case's files, the timing of the arrest was influenced by the relentless solidarity actions with Alfredo Cospito, an anarchist prisoner currently on hunger strike against the 41 bis regime and life imprisonment without the possibility of parole.

This operation is part of a witch hunt that wants to frame anarchists as a public enemy to be eliminated. In the context of the countless actions in solidarity with Alfredo in Italy and abroad, we clearly see this repressive blow as part of the state's attempt to stifle every and any spark of rebellion.

Nikos was sentenced to 86 years' imprisonment in absentia in the Revolutionary Struggle case. His sentence was merged into 50 years. However, the maximum prison term is 25 years (which are typically served either as a full sentence or by day wages in prisons, or after the completion of 3/5 of the prison term, when a prisoner can be granted conditional release under specific conditions).

Paolo Todde

Sardinian comrade Paolo Todde, who was already persecuted in the first half of the 2000s in the wake of the repression against the anarchist social center FRARIA in Cagliari, has been in pretrial detention since October 23, 2024, for robbery. He had already been arrested several years ago for armed robbery. On April 25 2025, he and other prisoners began a hunger strike to protest the living conditions in the prison in Uta (Sardinia). The intervention of the so-called “guarantors” (comparable to an ombudsman), who made only empty and useless promises, led to the collective hunger strike being called off after less than a week. However, Paolo decided to continue it on his own on May 8, with the clear intention of seeing it through to the bitter end. We would like to point out that Paolo is 64 years old and began the strike weighing only 61 kg. Paolo shares many dreams with us: that of a free Sardinia, hatred of prisons and the society that produces them.

Pavel Krisevich

Pavel Krisevich is an actionist artist, who has been detained several times for his performances, all of which have been against repression and for political prisoners in Russia. His last action was a symbolic suicide performance in the Red Square with a gun loaded with blank cartridges on the 11th of June 2021. We support Krisevich not because he has been part of the anarchist movement (he has not), but because he has prominently supported repressed anarchists, especially those in the Penza-St. Petersburg Network case.

Pavel Shpetny

Birthday: 25.07.1997

Sentence: 6 years

Release date: March 2026

We are unaware of Pavel's political views, but since he is detained under the anarchists' case, we consider it important to support him in every possible way. Pavel was arrested March, 2 2021 together with some other activists who were on the list of politically unreliable ones. Each of the detainees was charged with gross violation of order (Art. 342) and participation in an international criminal organisation (Art. 285.2). The grounds for the charges were the anarchists' actions against the accumulator battery factory (blocking the Brest-Minsk highway), the participation of anarchists in the march of «non-parasites» in Brest in 2017 and graffiti. According to the investigation, the activists of the Revolutionary Action in Belarus, Revolutionary Action in Ukraine and People's Self-Defense in Russia created a criminal organization to undermine the regimes. Roman Shvedov

On the 23rd of September 2022 someone threw a firebomb with 3 litres of gasoline to an administration building in the Zimovski municipality of the Rostov region.

Roman Shvedov was soon arrested and charged with terrorism.

Solidarity Zone organised a lawyer to visit Roman in March, whom he told that he is an anarchist and in very bad spirits. He refused any further support in the form of lawyers, saying that he will be rotting in prison for years and lawyers cannot change the outcome of his case. On December 18, the military court in Rostov sentenced him to sixteen years in a penal colony. Five hours after the sentencing, Shvedov was found dead in his cell by a prison guard. The official explanation from the Russian authorities is suicide, but the circumstances surrounding his death remain unclear.

Ryan Dwyer and Ryan Roberts two anarchists are part of the Kill The Bill - prisoners.

What happened on 21st March 2021 was an outpouring of rage against the violence of the police. The crowd fought back after police officers attacked the crowd with batons and riot shields. Pepper spray was used indiscriminately, people were charged at with horses and hit over the head with batons and shields. The protesters fought back, seizing police riot shields, helmets and batons to defend themselves. By the end of the evening several police vehicles had been set on fire. Those who defended themselves against the police have been branded ‘thugs’ and ‘wild animals’ by both Priti Patel and the police spokesperson. The police have been out for revenge for what happened at Bridewell ever since. That revenge has come in the form of the brutality used against the Kill the Bill protests in Bristol on March 23rd and 26th. And in the use of riot charges – the most serious public order charge available in English law punishable by a maximum of ten years in prison – against those who fought back on March 21st.

Ryan Dwyer was sentenced to 4,5 years and was sadly recalled to prison in October 2024. Ryan Roberts is doing 14 years in prison on various charges.

Ryan recently arrived to Lowdham Grange prison without any property due to a fire in the previous prison. He has been bullied by staff and is struggling with isolation.

Sean Swain

Sean Swain is a hostage held by a lawless rogue-state calling itself "The State of Ohio." He has been held without legal conviction or sentence since 1991 for the self-defense killing of a court official's relative who broke into Sean's home and threatened his life. In fall of 2012, prisoners calling themselves the Army of the 12 Monkeys (A12M) got rowdy at Mansfield Correctional, and the prison authorities assumed "that anarchist" Sean Swain must have been behind it and threw him in supermax isolation. Sean denies any involvement or affiliation with the A12M and is in the process of suing the ODRC for targetting him based exclusively on his ideology and political speech.

Sofia Johnson

'The she/they insurrectionist enby of your dreams. Write me about the Miami Heat, Friedrich Nietzsche, or come park your car. I'm 25, single, a fan of roses that are black and things that go boom.' Sofia 'Candle' Johnson's sentence is largely driven, time-wise, by her conviction in relation to her robbery of a 7/11 in Beaverton, Oregon; she robbed the cashier at gunpoint for around-$860 and a handful of Backwoods cigars. Though she succeeded in fleeing from the police, she was later indicted while in custody pertaining to charges that arose from her squatting of a vacant veterinary clinic. She accepted a plea-agreement of the mandatory-minimum, 90-months, per §ORS 137.700.

All of her convictions run concurrently, meaning Sofia's hard-release date is set as 12/22/2028. She has no remorse for her acts and holds the State in contempt. Sofia is an intellectual, and though her acts arose of necessity they were not born of impulse. She believes it is always time to act, even alone, that no act is more or less significant than another.

The Network Case (Russia)

In October 2017, FSB officers arrested six antifascists who played airsoft in the woods. The FSB planted weapons and explosives in some of their vehicles, and tortured them in pre-trial detention- beating them, hanging them upside down, electrocuting them, and threatening them with even worse. This torture was used to force the arrestees to validate forged testimony professing that they are part of an alleged terrorist "network." At the end of January 2018, four more antifascists were arrested in St. Petersburg. They were also beaten, tortured by means of electrical shock, and forced to agree that they too were members of this invented "network."

In January 2019, Igor Shiskin was sentenced to 3.5 years of imprisonment. His case was considered individually as he entered into a plea bargain. In February 2020, Dmitry Pchelintsev received 18 years, Ilya Shakursky 16 years, Arman Sagynbaev 6 years, Andrei Chernov 14 years, Vasily Kuksov 9 years, Mikhail Kulkov 10 years, and Maxim Ivankin 13 years of imprisonment. In June 2020, St. Petersburg's military court sentenced Viktor Filinkov to 7 years and Yuli Boyarshinov to 5.5 years in a penal colony (commuted to 5 years 3 months).

*Sending letters to Belarus. Political prisoners in Belarus are reporting non-delivery and destruction of mail coming from comrades even inside the country. You can try to send the letters anyway, but take pictures of them and send them to belarus_abc@riseup.net – ABC-Belarus will pass them to relatives or lawyers. Alternatively, use an online form on their website <https://abc-belarus.org/en/send-an-online-letter-to-a-prisoner/?lang=en>

Sending letters to Russia. Censorship in Russian pre-trial detention centres and correctional facilities forbids prisoners to correspond in foreign languages. Please use online translators to compose a message in Russian. Discussing a criminal case, radical statements, even conveying news and opinions about Russian military aggression against Ukraine can lead to pressure and the imposition of penalties on the prisoner. Of course, you are free to write whatever you want, but try to formulate your message in such a way that it does not harm the recipient.

If you are writing to prisoners outside of organised solidarity events, find out if it is possible to send letters to the Russian Federation from your region. If impossible, you can scan the message or postcard and send it to abc-msk\(at\)riseup.netriseup.net). The activist team in Russia will print out all the material received and send it to the prisoners.
